

Toward a Real-Time ASL Avatar Utilizing Linguistic Principles for Nonmanual Signals

Marie Stumbo, Larwan Berke, Melissa Bialek, Farah Thomas

Goal to facilitate the creation of realistic animation by modifying our avatar to run in real time

Studied nonmanual signals to determine capabilities needed to produce accurate ASL

Remodeled teeth and eyelashes to reduce polygon count

Relit scene to reduce number of lights

Resulted in a 16% decrease in rendering time